Dick Price JD, is an attorney and mediator in Fort Worth. He has been Board Certified as a Specialist in Family Law since 1984. He practices Family Law and is a strong proponent of Collaborative Law as a better way to resolve many Family Law issues. His practice involves both litigation and Collaborative Law, as well as mediation. While he handles a lot of divorce work, most of his cases are resolved out of court in a respectful and civil manner. Mr. Price is the Chair of the Collaborative Law Section of the State Bar of Texas. He is a charter member of Collaborative Divorce Texas, and former member of its Board of Trustees. In 2001, he was a founding member of the Collaborative Lawyers of Tarrant County and later was a founding member and first chair of the Collaborative Law Section of the Tarrant County Bar Association. He is a member of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. He has been named a Texas Super Lawyer and a Top Lawyer in Fort Worth more than 10 times each. He is also a former member of the Law Practice Management Committee of the State Bar of Texas. Mr. Price is a frequent speaker for the State Bar of Texas, Collaborative Divorce Texas, the IACP and various county bar associations and sections, on Collaborative Law, family law and law practice management issues. He has also been a trainer on mediation for Dispute Resolution Services of North Texas. Mr. Price has an extensive web site at www.pricelawfirm.com and two award-winning blogs, "Divorce and Family Law in Tarrant County, Texas" and "Texas Collaborative Law", and is active on Twitter and LinkedIn and other social media. His "Texas Collaborative Law" blog was the first blog devoted exclusively to Collaborative Law.

Kate Smith JD, holds a BA from The University of Houston, and a J.D. from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law. Ms. Smith also holds a LL.M in Dispute Resolution from Pepperdine University School of Law. Ms. Smith is Board Certified in Family Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She IS a Master/Credentialed Collaborative Professional (Collaborative Divorce Texas). She is the current Chairperson of the Collaborative Law Section of the Tarrant County Bar Association, having held that position since 2015. Ms. Smith has been recognized as a Super Lawyer "Rising Star" by Texas Monthly Magazine for the years 2014 and 2015 and has also been voted Top Attorney by Fort Worth Magazine (2009-2017).

Carol Mapp is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker specializing family matters including collaborative law, court services, and divorce coaching with more than 30 years of experience working with families in Tarrant, Parker, and Dallas Counties. She owns a full-service counseling practice located in Arlington Texas that offers therapy and solutions for parents and their families. Carol is serving as a trustee on the Collaborative Divorce Texas board. Carol is a national, state, and local trainer for CDT Annual Conference, IACP Annual Conference, American Counseling Association, and National Association of Social Workers. She has written numerous articles regarding children of divorce and their families including Collaborative Divorce Texas Blog. Ms. Mapp has authored several handbooks for clinical practitioners.

Thomas Stewart, CPA, ABV, CVA, ASA, CFF, and CEIV, joined Whitley Penn in 2011 as a Senior Manager in the Forensic, Litigation & Valuation Services group. Prior to joining Whitley Penn he managed his own firm since 1997. Thomas serves as a testifying expert to the Texas business and legal community in matters of family law, probate, personal injury and civil litigation involving property evaluations and characterization, income taxation, commercial damages and lost profits and forensic accounting. Thomas has extensive experience in valuation of business entities and intangible assets.
