Trainers

Carol Mapp, LCSW is the President and Founder of Integrated Healthworks, a mental health counseling center. She is a recognized leader in the field of psychotherapy and has developed expertise in myriad areas of counseling families engaged in various court processes. Carol's areas of work include, but are not limited to co-parenting facilitation, communication coaching, and family issue resolution. During her 30 year plus experience as a specialist with at-risk families, Carol has facilitated numerous local, statewide, and national workshops for social workers, educators, counselors, parents, and legal professionals. Topics have included "Strategies to Promote Non-violent Households" and "Working with High Conflict Families". In addition, Carol has developed programs, curriculum, interventions, and evaluative tools for at-risk families. Currently Carol is a certified early childhood specialist, parent facilitator and parent coordinator in family matters for the State of Texas. She is also a trained and active member of collaborative law teams, providing the mental health component in this integrative style of divorce law. Carol earned her BS in Elementary Education from North Texas State University and earned a Master of Science in Social Work from the University of Texas at Arlington. Her professional affiliations include: National Association of Social Workers, Texas Counseling Association, International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, Tarrant County Collaborative Professionals, and Collaborative Professionals of Arlington and Mansfield. She is currently serving as Trustee for Collaborative Divorce Texas.

Kate Smith JD holds a BA from The University of Houston, and a J.D. from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law. Ms. Smith also holds a LL.M in Dispute Resolution from Pepperdine University School of Law. Ms. Smith is Board Certified in Family Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She IS a Master/Credentialed Collaborative Professional (Collaborative Divorce Texas). She is the current Chairperson of the Collaborative Law Section of the Tarrant County Bar Association, having held that position since 2015. Ms. Smith has been recognized as a Super Lawyer "Rising Star" by Texas Monthly Magazine for the years 2014 and 2015 and has also been voted Top Attorney by Fort Worth Magazine (2009-2017).

Dick Price JD is an attorney and mediator in Fort Worth. He has been Board Certified as a Specialist in Family Law since 1984. He practices Family Law and is a strong proponent of Collaborative Law as a better way to resolve many Family Law issues. His practice involves both litigation and Collaborative Law, as well as mediation. While he handles a lot of divorce work, most of his cases are resolved out of court in a respectful and civil manner. Mr. Price is the Chair of the Collaborative Law Section of the State Bar of Texas. He is a charter member of Collaborative Divorce Texas, and former member of its Board of Trustees. In 2001, he was a founding member of the Collaborative Lawyers of Tarrant County and later was a founding member and first chair of the Collaborative Law Section of the Tarrant County Bar Association. He is a member of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. He has been named a Texas Super Lawyer and a Top Lawyer in Fort Worth more than 10 times each. He is also a former member of the Law Practice Management Committee of the State Bar of Texas. Mr. Price is a frequent speaker for the State Bar of Texas, Collaborative Divorce Texas, the IACP and various county bar associations and sections, on Collaborative Law, family law and law practice management issues. He has also been a trainer on mediation for Dispute Resolution Services of North Texas. Mr. Price has an extensive web site at www.pricelawfirm.com and two award-winning blogs, "Divorce and Family Law in Tarrant County, Texas" and "Texas Collaborative Law", and is active on Twitter and LinkedIn and other social media. His "Texas Collaborative Law" blog was the first blog devoted exclusively to Collaborative Law.
